THIRD VENTURE
Mr. Robert Chambers Takes Unto Himself a Third Wife.

He is twenty and His Bride is Fifty Years Old.

Mr. Robert Chambers and Mrs. Mary N. Vincent, the former a well known farmer of the county and the latter a resident of North Tenth street, were married yesterday at the home of the bride.

The groom is 70 years of age, and it is his third matrimonial venture, while the bride is 50 years old and it is her second. They will reside in the county.

Rev. W. E. Cave united the couple.

BABY DIED.
The Wife Did Not Survive Long After Found.

The little girl baby left on the doorstep at the home of Mr. John Ozmert, at Fourth and Ohio streets, died last night. It was several nights ago that a woman left it, asking that it be taken care of.

Mr. and Mrs. Ozmert decided to adopt it, but it seemed a delicate little creature and gradually became weaker until it died.

The remains will be buried today sometime. The baby seemed to be about nine days old.

RECEIVED HIS COMMISSION.

Justice Hook Will Take His Seat
at Once.

Justice W. H. Hook this morning received from Gov. Bradley his commission as magistrate of the Fourth district. Justice Hook, it will be remembered, was awarded the commission by the McCracken county commissioners last week. He will begin at once the discharge of his duties.

THE FINEST.

Mr. A. G. Smith, traveling representative of the New Century Cigar graph, is in the city looking for purchasers for type writing machines.
He has been here several days and during the time has placed a number of these most excellent machines, removing some of the so-called best makes. Mr. Smith is not only an expert hand with the type writing machine, either as a manipulator or repairer, but is a clever gentleman, and whether you will buy or not finds pleasure in exhibiting the New Century to the public and demonstrating its many excellencies over other machines to the interested. If you have not met Mr. Smith drop him a postal, care of the Henneberger house, and have him call forthwith.
It will be to your interest without doubt.

ZAMBOANGA

Was Yesterday Captured By the Americans and Is Still Held By a Small Force.

TROUBLE IS EXPECTED YET

Insurgents Near Manila Attack
the Town—Brief Report Indicates Fighting.

NO REPORTS FROM ADVANCE

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 20.—General Otis cables this morning of serious outbreak against the Americans in Zamboanga, capital of Mindanao, for for which the Americans were but poorly prepared. He says in part:
"One of the insurgent detachments factions at Zamboanga secured the city and turned the same over to Captain Very, commander gunboat Castine, then in harbor. Other insurgent factions made demonstration and Very called on the garrison at Jolo for help.
One company was sent and two others will follow soon as reinforcements can be forwarded, which will be several days."

A second message says: "General MacArthur's advance entered Daguplan today and ascertained that General Wheaton's troops had been there before, withdrawing yesterday. It is believed many insurgent detachments are west of the railroad in the concentrating and making further demonstration. They will be looked after.
Nothing yet received from either Lawton or Wheaton."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Admiral Watson's dispatch on the Zamboanga affair is as follows: "Commander Very, of the Castine, and friendly natives and the Moros combined and captured Zamboanga. No casualties.
Landing parties from the Castine and the Manila held the town and Fort Nazre. Commander of the gunboat Manila will be in charge until the arrival of troops from Jolo, which are awaited. Considerable force of insurgents is at Mercedes, four miles away."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—General Otis affirms the capture, by three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry, colored, by night, of 200 insurgents, without loss of life, at O'Donnell. Much ammunition, clothing, transportation, official reports and 200 rifles seized.

Insurgents south of Manila made an advance towards that city yesterday. They were driven back, six Americans were wounded.

MANILA, Nov. 20.—The trouble in Zamboanga recalls the fact that the Americans had not intended to take possession there until affairs in the Luzon had become more settled. The outbreak, however, forces matters. The cities of Cotabato, Davao and Suragao, in the northeastern part of Mi-danao, are important and garrisons will be stationed there.

TRANSVAAL TIPS.

Today's Intelligence from South Africa Not Very Interesting.

CAPE TOWN, Nov. 20.—The telegraph to Johannesburg, Cape Colony, is cut off. It is supposed the town has been captured by the Boers. Janestown is south of Alval North. When the Boers entered the latter place they were cheered by the inhabitants. A skirmish is reported to have taken place at Kuruman Rhodesia.

—Marshall Chas. McNutt, of Mayfield, arrested Harry Stradler, alias Strader, today at Mayfield on a charge of housebreaking. The prisoner is alleged to have stolen a coat from Geo.
Wiley, this place.

—Coroner Phelps was called this afternoon to issue a death certificate for the three days' old child of Emma Jackson, of Hoffman's alley. The infant died from convulsions.

—The session of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the pastor's study tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

NOTHING NEW.

The Gubernatorial Contest Is Calm Today.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 20.—There is nothing new in the status of the gubernatorial fight. The election of Taylor is now only disputed by the Goebel gang and the Jefferson county commissioners. The fight over the count of the vote here progresses slowly but surely and must soon come to an end. Several days more, however, will be thus wasted, for there will be much speaking for effect. The Goebels are making a dying gasp for a fact.

grinding of grain is Bockmon's Whole Wheat Bread. Fresh every day.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Very Little Done This Morning—
Lawyers at Other Court.

There has been little of interest in the circuit court this morning. The jury was discharged Saturday and there has been no one about the court house, with few exceptions. Nearly all the attorneys were called to the United States court by various cases there.

The motion in the case of B. C.
Fields against C. E. Gridley for a new trial, was overruled by the court.

Also that of Wm. Floyd against the Paducah Street Railway company.

The same result was entered in the case of Mrs. Nancy Brane against

CHIEF CLERK

Mr. Chas. G. Morris Receives
This Appointment With I. C.

A New Man Will Take the Place of Store Keeper—Other Railroad News.

Mr. Charles G. Morris was this morning appointed chief clerk under Master Mechanic Curley, by Supt. Wm.
Renshaw, of machinery, of the Illinois Central road to succeed Mr. W.
S. Jones, who went to Elizabethport, N. J., several weeks ago. It was known for sometime past that Mr.
Morris would receive the appointment, but it was not formally made until this morning.

Mr. Morris has been with the road for about ten years and is one of the most efficient and popular employes in the company's service, as well as one of Paducah's best known young men. The appointment could not have been better bestowed, and one could not have been made that will give more universal satisfaction.

Mr. Morris will give excellent satisfaction, and his many friends are very much pleased that he has secured the position.

Mr. Palmer, now with the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad will succeed Mr. Morris as store keeper, which place he had before taking his office of chief clerk temporarily.

Mr. Palmer was formerly store keeper of the I. C. at New Burnside, Ill.

Maser Mechanic M. S. Curley has returned from the big wreck up at Pleasure Ridge park, where he went to examine the machinery.

Conductor Forsythe, of Louisville, Yardmaster Hick Hamilton, of Memphis and Conductor Bob Nelson, of the Illinois Central, are here attending United States court.

Mr. Barney Kegan, of Louisville, is here attending United States court.

Mr. W. A. Spink, formerly with the Southern Express company, but for the past two years of Louisville, has accepted a position as fireman on the
I. C. and arrived this morning.

The union depot shed has not yet been rolled away, but the work of preparing for it is advancing rapidly.
The posts have all been sawed off and the work of moving the shed will probably be commenced by tomorrow morning.

Work is progressing on the new union depot, and it will be a very important structure. The brick work has been in progress for several days.

Yesterday the Illinois Central yard force here broke all records. More trains went out of Paducah than ever before in one day. Everything was handled with the usual dispatch.

Thomas A. Mulligan, the manager of the Louisville hotel, is critically ill and is not expected to recover.

Conductor Mun Dowell, formerly of the St. Louis and Paducah division, but now running into Cairo on the
I. C., is in the city attending court.

Engineer Walter Sheppard, one of the most popular on the road, was painfully hurt yesterday by a mail car or mail coach hanging on a mail car between Paducah and Fulton.

He came in today, and his many friends will be glad to learn that he is not seriously hurt.

Night Yardmaster Tetters leaves day after tomorrow for his new home in Meridian, Miss. He resigned here several days ago, and his successor will be Mr. Wm. Ammon, formerly a conductor on the Big Four.

The amount of business handled from Paducah and Central City yesterday exceeded anything ever done before on this division. Five hundred and fifty loads and 120 empties were hailed between the two points.

IN ENGLAND.

The Kaiser and His Party are at Windsor.

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., Nov. 10.—
The Prussian imperial yacht, the Sachsen, with the Kaiser, the empress and two sons arrived here this morning. The yacht and party were greeted by twenty British warships. At the dock the party was greeted by Duke of Connaught, representing the queen. There was no popular demonstration. The party hastened to Windsor.

U. S. COURT

Judge Evans Opened Court This Morning With Much Business To Look After.

NO GRAND JURY IMpaneled

Mail Agent Thomas Jenkins Acquitted of a Grave Charge—
Other Business Com. s Up.

CASES SENT TO LOUISVILLE

Federal court this morning convened at the government building at 10 o'clock in regular November term, Judge Walter Evans presiding, and the following officers here: Marshal
A. D. James, District Attorney R.
D. Hill and J. R. Puryear.

Postoffice Inspector Kyle, of Indianapolis, and Miss Hortense Hor-ten, secretary to Marshal James, are among the attendants.

Messrs. Roscoe Puryear and E. Hubbard were chosen bailiffs for the term.

Judge Evans announced that as one federal grand jury was in session in Louisville at the present time, and he doubted whether or not two could sit in one district at the same time, no grand jury would be impaneled.
This means that no indictments will be found here at this term of court.
This is the first time that a session of this court was ever held without a grand jury.

The following petit jury was impaneled to try cases:

J. C. Berry, Arlington.
James Trewaller, Hinkleville.
J. F. Hale, Paducah.
W. J. Bugg, Arlington.
W. N. Robins, Paducah.
J. M. Coleman, Eddyville.
B. B. Rhodes, Arlington.
L. H. Paris, Marion.
J. M. Johnson, Benton.
J. W. Guess, Tolu.

T. H. Cosby, Hickory Grove.
J. B. Hay, Murray.
J. D. Smith, Golden Pond.
Geo. T. Beadles, Fulton.
John W. Lander, Calvert City.
R. H. Alexander, Clear Springs.
Jas. J. Thomas, Jr., Cadiz.
E. D. Hurt, Murray.

G. Q. Umbagh, Paducah.
O. K. Kerlin, Jordan.
Y. C. Curd, Hardin.
J. A. Morton, Paducah.
J. W. Osburn, Hazel.

J. L. Nichols, Princeton.
D. B. Green, Kuttawa.
N. T. Hill, Smithland.
J. M. Freeman, Marion.
W. W. Meaders, Mayfield.
W. J. Carver, Princeton.

The most important case of the forenoon was that against Mail Agent Thomas E. Jenkins, charged with opening mail that did not belong to him.

He is a very popular young man, and was arrested some months ago at the instance of J. A. Myers, of West Point, whom it is alleged had a grudge against Mr. Jenkins, and accused the latter of opening letters addressed to him.

Both men had runs touching Paducah, and are well known here.
Mr. Jenkins was taken to Louisville and the case was sent here at the request of the inspector who thought Mr. Jenkins had too many warm friends in Louisville to render it possible to convict him.

A Miss Johnson, of Princeton, was here today to testify in the case. It was one of her letters to Myers that was alleged to have been opened.

The jury was out but a short time this morning when it returned a verdict of not guilty, and Mr. Jenkins has since done nothing but receive congratulation.

He has been suspended for six months pending this investigation, which failed to show anything whatever criminal against Mr. Jenkins, and in addition has been greatly injured.

It is said on good authority that he will immediately bring suit against Myers for heavy damages.

The cases against Horace Powell and J. W. Freeman, charged with postoffice robbery at Calvert City, were transferred to Louisville.

Worrell Todd was adjudged guilty of selling whiskey without a license, but the court has not passed sentence on him yet.

The warrant against Mary Bell, colored, was filed away, and she was allowed to go on her own bond.
She is charged with pension frauds.

Several witnesses were fined $5 and costs for contempt of court in failing to appear at the proper time.

In the case of May Derrington against the N. C. and St. L., for $20,000 damages, a retrial was filed.

The transcripts in the cases of Dennis Prince against the I. C. and A. J. Thomson against the I. C., were filed, and a motion was made to remand them to the McCracken court, whence they came.

The suit of Jas. Rudy, trustee in bankruptcy, against Ben Katz, was settled and dismissed.

A demurrer in the case of Oliver Flowers against the M. and O. was filed.

Attorney Robert Greenhaw was sworn in as attorney on motion of Judge Green.

The case of McCullom & Tinsley against the steamer Dunbar was ordered to Louisville.

All the criminal cases in which indictments have not already been found will have to be transferred to Louisville or continued. It is probable that they will be transferred, as there will be no more court until April, after the present term.

THE PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN.

Right of Way for C. & P. S. E.
Through Metropolis Granted.

At a called meeting of the Metropolis council Saturday evening an ordinance granting the Chicago, Paducah and Southeastern railroad the right-of way through that place to the river was passed by a decisive vote. It is thought in Metropolis that this grant assures the road to the place and there is great rejoicing over the fact and the future thus assured.

The Metropolis Herald Saturday evening, referring to the passage of this ordinance, says: "Just as soon as the ordinance is adopted granting this right-of-way in the city the work of securing right-of-way out of town will be commenced. The line has been located the entire distance, and a right-of-way already secured nearly all the way through Johnson county."

"It now looks very much like the work of construction will be begun this winter, and as the line follows the old McLean road from Vienna to Round Knob, and the cuts and ditches being in fair state of preservation, it will not take long to build the road.
Possibly the first of next May will see trains running on regular schedule time over this new road."

POLICE COURT

Glisson's Case Partially Tried
This Morning.

Oth r Cases Tried—Several Fines Assessed Against Offenders.

The case against John W. T. Glisson, charged with being a fugitive from justice, wanted in Metropolis, Ill., was called this morning and the evidence against the defendant heard.

His attorney, Mr. Jesse Gilbert, had business in the United States court, and the trial was left open until Thursday morning.

Glisson was granted a divorce from his first wife Saturday in the circuit court here.

A. Duff, who claims to have been a New York Herald reporter for the past six years, but is now in the hog, and his friend, Bob Levy, were charged with invading an Illinois Central sand house, and put up such a plausible story that they were dismissed.

Thomas Loftus, who came up from Fulton Saturday, was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

John Bethel and Ed Bechenbach, charged with a breach of the peace, were fined $3 and costs on motion of the prosecuting attorney.

Clarence Hall, who wore a red striped sweater and a look of calm resignation, was taxed $25 and costs and sent to jail for 30 days on a charge of carrying a pistol. He said he was a Massachusetts jeweler, and is traveling about the country in search of work.

Albert Jackson, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5 and costs.

John Humphreys was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Annie Rushing, colored, was fined $5 and costs for disorderly conduct.
Judge Bradley was fined $20 and costs for gaming.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

Man Wanted in Union City, Tenn., Caught Here.

Andy Petty, alias Pete Lee and Pete Rainey, colored, arrested as a suspicious character Saturday night.
On his person a pistol was found concealed, and Chief Hoyer for reasons concluded he was a fugitive wanted in Union City, Tenn., for murder.

He was locked up on a charge of carrying a deadly weapon and Union City notified.

This afternoon Deputy Sheriff J.
S. Adams, of Union City, came for Petty, and readily identified him.
Petty saw it was useless to longer attempt to deceive those officers, and said he would go back without a requisition.

The prisoner is alleged to have shot and killed John Russell, colored, at Union City about three weeks ago.

COUNCIL MEETS.

Sewerage Will Probably Be Received This Evening.

The council meets tonight in regular session, and it is to be its last regular session.

About the most important thing to come up will be the sewerage question. It is reported that the city's recent proposition to compromise the street improvement expense will be accepted, and that the sewerage will this evening be formally received by the council.

That Filipino flea, Aguinaldo, is still at large.

Goebel and his gang should exercise great care while in Frankfort. They are very close to the penitentiary.

Goebel and his gang should exercise great care while in Frankfort. They are very close to the penitentiary.

The great benefit the state secured in the defeat of Goebel will never be known as a positive fact, but it will be a blessing nevertheless.

If all the returns are in by that time, the state board of election commissioners will begin their work Monday, Nov. 27, which will be a week from today.

The general part of the Democratic press of the state condemns in strong terms the Goebel idea of stealing the state. This is a fact which the Sun speaks of in justice to the "profession."

Just the political cast of the next legislature is yet a doubt, but it will not be a Goebel legislature. There is but one Goebel in the land and he cannot spread out over the legislature, thanks to honorable men.

Colonel R. M. Kelley is being mentioned for congress from the Louisville district. The colonel is one of the most worthy men in the metropolis and fully entitled to the endorsement of his party for any honorable position.

Just the day before the election J. C. S. Blackburn said "We will teach the Republicans of Kentucky a practical lesson in mathematics in the count of the ballots this year." The practical lesson has not yet been taught, however.

An experiment with wireless telegraphy at Kentucky State College was a success. Instead of using current generated by a battery, as has always been done, Prof. F. Paul Anderson used a current from a dynamo, getting excellent results.

The Louisville Post clips liberally from the Courier-Journal's election predictions to show how ridiculous was much that paper printed. This natural tendency to ridicule would our own Mayor Lang's letters to the Times if printed just about now. But the Sun would spare its readers.

Election rascalities in Louisville are to receive some airing in spite of the efforts of the Democrats to cover these frauds up. The federal court has already returned twenty indictments and there are more to follow. These cases will show who did the stealing of votes and who brought about the rascally election just held in the metropolis.

Chairman James K. Jones, of the Democratic National committee, denies the statement in a Washington dispatch last night that he has settled upon either Jan. 8 or Feb. 11 as the time for the national committee meeting. He says he has no idea yet as to when the meeting will be called and does not know whether the custom of meeting Feb. 22 will be departed from.

The Goebel press has had much to say in condemnation of the stay-at-home Democrats. Though these absent voters might have voted for Taylor or Brown—and it is just as reasonable to suppose this as to think that they would have voted for Goebel—they are entitled to the thanks of the people rather than the abuse of any for not voting for the Kenton king. The Sun willingly grants this.

Just now the eyes of the Union are on Kentucky, and its attentive audience is intelligently appreciative of the true status of affairs that have thus brought her so prominently into public view. Upon this wisdom or unwisdom, the fairness or unfairness, of her conduct in this critical circumstance depends her well being at home and her well standing abroad. The people should recognize the fact fully.

St. Louis is threatened with an epidemic of typhoid fever. The papers of the Future Great are publishing long articles on the subject, to warn the people how to ward off the disease, how to treat it, etc. The fact that the disease is raging in the eastern parts of the city and not the slums has startled the people and set the authorities to work. Considering the season St. Louis clearly has cause for alarm.

Major Henry Clay McDowell, of Lexington, died Saturday, of heart disease. He was a noted horse raiser and a most popular and justly highly esteemed man. His wife was a grand daughter of Hon. Henry Clay, for whom he was named, and he owned the old Clay home place. A few years since he entertained the state press gang while on a visit to Lexington in a most elegant way and the gang will regret his death and pay him due honor, for he has ever been kindly remembered by the fraternity. Peace to his ashes.

Honest Democrats since the development of the only plan by which it was possible that there could be manufactured a major showing out of an evicted minority result by the whole sale reversal of precincts and counties upon trumped up technicalities, that in no sense obscure the object of the ballot cast, honest supporters of Senator Goebel have not hesitated to call a halt. Anxious as they were for his election, they are not willing to sanction a subversion of suffrage to the end that he be given a certificate the people have declared at the polls to be the trust of another. The Goebels should be warned in season.

One of the things the Sun cannot understand is why Coulter, of Graves county, the so-called leader of Democracy in this end of the state, was the worst defeated candidate on the Louisville ticket. It can't be that Coulter was so unpopular, but rather that in making up his list of underlings in his office he overloaded himself. He also no doubt suffered from some of his foot advocates, who, by setting him appear such a king among men, aroused a jealousy which told in the election booth. Mr. Coulter the next time will no doubt be wiser than he was the last time.

The Sun doesn't believe Goebel's gang can steal the vote of the state. There is yet the saving grace of manhood in Kentucky, manhood that is incorruptible and that may not be intimidated. Democratic editors do themselves credit and their state service when they openly and frankly speak out for fairness and against evident fraud. This example is worthy the emulation of others, but unfortunately remains with the party in the fight it is now making.

Wm. J. Bryan most likely will be a United States senator before long. Senator-elect M. L. Hayward, who was lately paralyzed, is near death's door and his demise will make a vacancy which the governor will have to fill. Mr. Bryan's friends are urging him to take the vacancy should it occur and it is known that the governor will name him if he will serve.

There has been no expression from Mr. Bryan, of course, but he will no doubt accept the honor.

Congressman Benton, of Missouri, outpredicted any other Democrat of the country as to the career of Mr. Bryan in the next presidential contest. Mr. Benton seems to think that the Nebraska will carry the entire south, nearly every state west of the Missouri river, and probably New York and Indiana, and be easily elected president, of course. But Mr. Benton doesn't know—he's only thinking a thought.

While the official count in Louisville is yet far from complete, it is the only vote in the state not yet reported, and the unofficial figures from Louisville are accurate enough to show the situation as it stands today. Mr. Taylor has the "bulk" and will certainly be governor.

Prof. Wilhelm Meyer, of Vienna, declared absolutely and positively that our planet was scheduled for destruction, last Monday, by coming in close neighborly relation with the comet of 1866. A week has passed and yet our little earth does business at the same old stand.

GETTING RIGHT.
The Leader, one of our several local contemporaries, who we thus designate because it is so little known among men, came near being honest with itself and its readers yesterday, though it floundered about considerably. The Leader says:

"So far as this paper is concerned it cannot favor the stealing of votes to seat any man for any office, be he a Democrat or a Republican."

"It has always favored fair and honest elections and as long as it is under the control of the present management it will continue to do so. The vote should be counted as voters intend and whenever they are counted otherwise they will bring the downfall of this form of Republican government."

"We don't allow our better judgment to be deceived by our anxiety for the success of the political party to which we belong."

It is clear the Leader will be all right if it lives long enough.

THIS AIRSHIP A SUCCESS.
French Aeronaut Can Make It Fly Against Strong Winds.

In Paris, France, Santos-Dumont made an ascent that convinced the most skeptical that he can steer a balloon. He first directed his course toward the Eiffel Tower, which he encircled, then turned off west toward a southwest wind was blowing at the time. His balloon is cigar-shaped, and has a volume of 500 cubic meters. It is provided with a petroleum motor for a screw at the stern, which can work when the balloon is going against the wind.

In Lee county, Va., a young man killed the slayer of his father.

Paducah's merchants, as well as all other good citizens, should take a lively and substantial interest in the brass band to be organized here. The members of the proposed band will all be experienced musicians, and it is expected to make the organization one of which the city can justly feel proud.

The jury was finally discharged in the circuit court Saturday, after several weeks service. One remarkable feature of this term of court was that the jury decided every railroad suit against the railroad company. The largest verdict rendered was for $15,000 in a case where an unfortunate railroader had lost both legs as a result of an accident. At a previous term of court the jury rendered a verdict for $10,000. The disparity of verdicts indicates the fickleness of fortune—when dependent on the opinion of a modern jury, and that litigation is a lottery, to say the least.

Observations

...at Random.

People who have a great deal of occult power seldom have anything else of consequence. The hypnotists and clairvoyants with such a superabundance of miraculous ability never have money. They drift about from place to place, as a rule, and apparently never have anything. Most people, to profit by the example before them, would prefer more money and less occult power.

Meat of it is a fake anyhow. Christian science is true only so far as the patient is able to overcome his imagination. If he had a real disease, a sore enough pain, or a genuine ache, all the Christian Science in the world wouldn't help him any more than it would help the man with a broken leg to walk with a sound limb. The disease must exist on the imagination before the imagination alone can cure it.

The other day a distinguished looking man walked down Broadway. He looked as if he might be a fugitive. William Jennings Bryan or some other equally celebrated personage. He looked at everybody with a benign smile, and finally some brown man spotted him for a brown orator and accosted him.

"Pardon me sir," he said, "but I should like to ask you name."

"Dr. Blank," was the reply.

"Oh yes! And what kind of a medical line do you practice?"

"I don't practice any kind," was the proud rejoinder, as he looked far away and puffed heroically at the cigar he wore in his face. "I cure by the laying on of hands. It's a gift with me, you see," he explained.

The inquisitive citizen passed on, and the distinguished man went his way.

That night a well known physician was hurriedly summoned to the bedside of the aforesaid distinguished looking man. He had a cramp, and judging from the way he howled, it was a real one. It was one that the laying on of hands would not cure, and no one knew this better than the distinguished looking man himself. That is the reason he sent for the doctor, for cramps are not pleasant things. The doctor does practice by the laying on of hands, but uses genuine medicine from the drug store, and charges good, hard cash for it.

He gave the man with the wretched laying-on-of-hands power a by peroxide and his pain was soon eased. Before he left, the doctor did not fail to get the two silver dollars due him. There was a peculiar satisfaction pictured on his face as he pocketed the two "plunks" and left his distinguished looking patient. Moralizing that people with occult power ought not to have pains.

The development of the gubernatorial campaign since the election nearly two weeks ago has been quite interesting. The official statements of the Goebel men have been intensely amusing.

First day after the election: Goebel man: Yah, yah, we've beat 'em 10,000 votes.

Second day: Goebel's majority will be at least 15,000.

Third day: We'll beat 'em 8,000 votes, if not more.

Fourth day: We've got 'em beat 5,000 votes majority.

Fifth day: They're beat. We'll give 'em a fair count, though.

Sixth day: We'll make our majority bigger by throwing out illegal votes.

Seventh day: The Republicans are holding back so they can steal it.

Eighth day: We've got 'em beat. We don't have to steal it. They'll get a fair count. Goebel ought to steal it to get even, though.

Ninth day: If they hold a fair election we wouldn't have to throw out their votes.

Tenth day: They taught us to steal.

Eleventh day: We don't have to contest, but they ought to have acted fair.

Twelfth day: They called out the militia and intimidated us into voting the Republican ticket.

Thirteenth day: They stole it last time, but Goebel will be the next governor.

Fourteenth day: Yes we're going to steal it. What're they going to do about it?

In Grace Episcopal church there is a delightful novelty in the form of a vested choir composed of young ladies. There are ten members of it at present, and they all wear robes and present a fine appearance. Every one of them is a good singer, and it is the first choir of this kind ever organized in Paducah, and perhaps the only one in the state. It has elicited many warm compliments from those who have heard it.

A canvass of senators made by a Washington correspondent in personal interviews, by letters and by wire leaves very little doubt that Quay will be seated upon certificate of appointment by Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania.

JUMPED INTO A WELL.

Princeton Woman Attempts to End Her Life.

Mrs. J. B. Groom, living on Washington street, at Princeton, Ky., attempted suicide by jumping in a twenty-four foot well. Her husband hearing screams in the direction of the well went to the well, and at once realizing the situation, climbed down the rope, tied it around her body and climbed up, pulling her with him. Bad health was the cause.

GOOD CREDIT RATING.
"As a credit man, were I called upon to name the requisites for a good credit rating, I should name the order given: Strict honesty, business ability and attention to business, and, last of all, capital. I would place capital last, as not the most important, and integrity first, as above all things necessary." So spoke a former president of the Credit Men's association, of Detroit, in a recent address. The statement has been made by credit men and quoted in our columns before, but it is well worth repeating again, because it contains a solid basis on which every employer may build a hope. Given a reputation for integrity, business ability and attention to business, he can generally obtain capital, or the credit, which is its equivalent.—Dry Goods Economist.

KNOW BY HEART 20,000 VERSES
A few years ago Europe was talking about the poetic gifts of the Russian peasant woman, Irena Fedorova. After living for some time with friends in St. Petersburg she went to visit her old home, where she died recently, aged 70. She was an insignificant looking, shriveled woman, small and lame, but with an intellectual face. Her memory was simply astounding; she knew by heart about 20,000 verses, and was regarded as a perfect cyclopaedia of legendary lore. Many tales, verses, proverbs that had not been previously recorded were resurrected to posterity, thanks to her memory. She was already famous at the age of 13, and a few years ago she entertained large audiences in Moscow and St. Petersburg.—New York Evening Post.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.
The announcement of the engagement of Miss Blanche Schwab and Mr. Harry Livingston, one of the most popular young merchants in Paducah and youngest son of the late Mr. M. Livingston, has been made. The date of the wedding has not been set. Miss Schwab is one of the prettiest of Paducah's many pretty girls, and is deservedly popular. She received last evening from 8 to 11 in honor of the event.

WILL MARRY WEDNESDAY.
Mr. Ed A. Wheeler and Miss Florence McCarty will be married at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of the bride's parents, 926 South Fourth street. They will leave on a short bridal trip, and upon their return will reside in a pretty cottage on South Thirteenth street.

AS TRUE AS GOSPEL.
Only those can sing in the dark who have a light in the heart.

The best way of avenging thyself is not to become like the wrong-doer. We should treat our friends as we do ourselves; for a friend is another self.

Love should give wings to the feet of service, and strength to the arms of labor.

Simplicity is one of the first laws of greatness, and another like unto it is humility.

He who always complains of the clouds receives little of life's sunshine and deserves less.

Defeat is one of the hardest things to bear, even in trifles; but we have to be defeated in order to succeed.

There are few things impossible in themselves, and the application necessary to make them succeed is more often wanting than the means.

Severity applied to the highest pitch breaks the will; and then, in the place of a disorderly young fellow, you have a low-spirited, moped creature.

An ounce of essence is worth a gallon of fluid. A wise saw may be more valuable than a whole book, and a plain truth is better than an argument.

If we desire to reduce mental activity, it stands to reason that we must attend to nothing. We must let the mind drift. We must not attempt to exercise any control whatever, but let the thoughts stray as they will and follow any line of association that is a line of least resistance.

The vulgar do not often recognize their own earmarks. These are as many as the manifestations of temperament; indications of vulgarity are not confined to speech and manners. One may be vulgar in one's house and furniture, one's dress, and in many other matters that are apt to be overlooked when a self-scrutiny is undertaken.

A little more than fifty years ago a few workmen of Rochdale, England, joined together to purchase a sack of flour and a chest of tea. That was the beginning of a co-operative movement which now includes 1,000 societies, with a total membership of 1,000,000.

FLINGS AT WOMANKIND.
Every unhappy woman takes pleasure in thinking of the time when she will come back, and it will be too late.

When a woman doesn't know of anything else nice to say about another woman she says she has such "cute little ways."

A girl is visiting in town who has a dress trimmed with four miles of lace and her hostess is thinking of giving a reception for it.

A woman who knows how easily the men can be fooled tells every one who kisses her that it is the first time she was ever kissed by a man.

It occurs to a man with some wonder that his wife never got up as much interest over him when she was a bride as she gets up over the new little red baby.

A good many girls have the notion that some day they may be compelled to sell their hair and pay off the mortgage on the family homestead, as the story books relate. An Atchison girl who had very beautiful hair became very poor and agreed to sell it for $3. After the hair had been cut off the purchaser refused to take it, saying she could get a switch for $2 in Kansas City that would answer.—Atchison Globe.

An Appalling Possibility.
Mrs. Cornsall was reading the society news in a metropolitan paper.

"You'd get used to it, mebbe," replied her husband.

"I duno. I s'pose I'd get ter neglectin' the house 'fore I knowed it. An' the idea of my bein' 'at home' becomin' such an extraordinary event that they'd go ter work and print a piece about it grates on my nerves."—Washington Star.

BRECKINRIDGE TALKS
Former Congressman Talks of Gov. Bradley's Power.

Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge Gives
In an Editorial Real Situation in 'Kentucky.'

LEXINGTON, Ky., Nov. 20.—Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge, in an editorial in the Lexington Herald, very ably discusses the powers of Governor Bradley in the present crisis. He says:

In the first constitution of Kentucky was inserted a provision separating the three departments, executive, judicial and legislative, and prohibiting any one belonging to one to perform any function properly belonging to the others; so that the persons and the functions were kept separate. They are three equal, coordinate and independent departments—each supreme in its own scope and domain, and powerless in the other domains. Each must primarily decide and act for itself. The courts cannot order or enjoin the legislature or the governor; the governor cannot order or interfere with the courts or the legislature. The great decision of Judge Marshall in Marbury vs. Madison is worthy of study in these days.

The term of the governor is not four years, but four years and until his successor has been elected and qualified. The governor is the custodian of property and archives; is the depository of powers, is responsible for the execution of the laws. He cannot turn over this property, these powers and these duties except to an elected and qualified successor. And except he must decide that question—is the person claiming to be elected and qualified entitled to take the office from him; he cannot avoid deciding. If he ceases to perform his duties and turns over the office to the claimant he decides the question one way; in either case he decides.
Governor Bradley, therefore, is compelled to decide the necessity, the power, the right to decide is unavoidable, and does not hang upon his decisions. This seems to us too clear for dispute.

Being compelled to decide, he must decide with a good conscience; he must decide according to his own conscience, not as to any other man's conscience. He is not the contesting board; his decision is only temporary;
that final decision rests with the legislature—not with the courts. The courts have no power by mandamus, injunction, quo warrant or other process to decide that question for the governor. By the Goebel law that is invested in the legislature.

If Governor Bradley refuses to cease to continue in the execution of the duties of his office, and any attempt is made to oust him by force, that attempt will be lawless violence, which he can put down by calling out the militia, and if it becomes formidable by calling on the president.
This is a plain statement of the constitution and law relating to this contest.

We have no knowledge or information of the views of Governor Bradley; but we have confidence in his civic, moral and personal courage to do whatever he thinks his duty requires.

Governor Bradley owes his party nothing. If Governor Taylor is elected, he owes his election to Governor Bradley, whose speeches roused the Republican party. Yet, before the election, in the very midst of the very fiercest part of the battle, distinguished Republicans hastened to announce themselves candidates for the senate—apparently to forestall Governor Bradley. But Governor Bradley does owe everything to his duty, his conscience, his state and to freedom.

A. H. THURNESS, Mgr. Wills Creek
Coal Co., Buffalo, Ohio, writes:
I have been affected with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones, accompanied by excruciating pains. Other medicines only gave temporary relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure, the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, little fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1000 worth of good.

edy I ever tried. It stopped the cough immediately and relieved all sore-ness.

without relief. My husband bought a box of Ballard's Salve, which I applied two or three times and my hands be-

A PLAYING
Given Kentucky's Boss By Keen Editorial Criticism.

Washington Post, Great Democratic Paper, Calls Him 'Most Shameless of Carpet-Baggers.'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Washington Post, Democratic Independent, but which has been advocating Blackburn and the regular ticket in Kentucky, under the caption of "The Infamy in Kentucky," says:
"It begins to appear that the Kentucky campaign, which opened with the infamous nomination of Goebel by the Democrats, is destined to close with the even deeper infamy of Goebel's election by fraud. The Louisville Courier-Journal, which has become the exponent, if not the authorized organ, of Goebelianism and its methods, is now telling us under triumphant headlines and with honest pride how the pure minded Democratic officials throughout the state are steadily robbing Taylor of his votes, and as steadily overcoming by the foulest and most insolent expedients the Republicans' legitimate majority. What was begun upon the scale of petty larceny—the theft of isolated ballot boxes and the disqualification of small groups of voters here and there—has reached the proportions of wholesale plunder and spoliation.

"The Goebel officials have boldly abandoned the furtive, piecemeal system, and are now standing by the most brazen and arrogant carpetbagger that went south in the reconstruction times to ravage states and loot treasuries would turn in his grave today. Turn with envy and regret—if he could know what a bungling journeyman he was compared with his Kentucky adept.

"We risk nothing in the assertion that in the history of American elections there has been no spectacle more disgraceful and abhorrent than that now presented by the Kentucky Democracy. That the Republican candidate has been elected by a clear majority is beyond all question. That the election officials, aided by Democratic courts are gradually but surely extinguishing this majority is patent to the dullest understanding. It is a spectacle fraught with humiliation and shame; and what makes it especially odious in the eyes of decent men is the fact that Goebel, who devised the machinery of fraud, is to be the beneficiary of its operations.

"The disgust and anger generated by these proceedings include the entire country. Honest Democrats—honest men—all who care for justice, honor and self-respect, resent, denounce and brand them. It is a safe prediction that the Democratic party, not only in Kentucky, but in the nation at large, will not be the victim of such a victory of villainy. The instability of Goebel through the detestable methods we have described will give Kentucky to the Republican party for years to come. No honorable man can possibly condone these methods or permit himself to be identified with them. The struggle is no longer between Republicanism and Democracy. It is between righteousness and crime."

DON'T RISK YOUR LIFE.

Many of your friends, or people whom you know of having contracted consumption, pneumonia or other fatal diseases by neglect of a simple cold or cough. Foley's Honey and Tar, a safe, sure and pleasant cough medicine, would have saved them. It

Useful Mr. Allen.

From the Saturday Evening Post: Mr. James Lane Allen, whose "Chlor levisable" has passed the 50,000 mark. LIVES in New York most of the year. His home is one of the old-fashioned town-stands front mansions above Forty-second street, which was in the center of Gotham's "Four Hundred"

a decade ago. Mr. Allen is a tall, spectacled man, retiring to a degree, and carries his avoidance of personal publicity to the point of eccentricity.

A great many men would refrain from doing foolish things if it were not for their desire to get their names in the newspapers.—New York Press.

The J. B. Richardson had a good start on her departure for Cairo this morning.

The Evansville Courier of Nov. 18th says: "Friday while the government forces were engaged in tearing away the old cross dam near the Kentucky chute, by letting off a blast in order to expedite the job, they succeeded in tearing away fully 200 yards of the old 'eye sore' A 10-inch spike was tossed high in the air by the explosion and descending it pierced the roof of the steamer Falls City, lying at the foot of Fourth street, driving a hole through it, and falling upon the boiler deckman on the larboard side. Pieces of rock fell at several places on the levee but with it all nobody was hurt. An officer was at once sent to ascertain the damage done the Falls City, and it was fully repaired Saturday.

Captain Dunson backed the Bob Dudley out for Evansville this morning at 10 o'clock with a good trip.

The W. J. Cummins is due this morning from Tennessee river.

The Kuttawa, from Cumberland river, will report this evening and leave on return trip tomorrow at 10 a. m.

Waterways Journal of Nov. 18th says: "Captain Oscar F. Barrett, of this city, closed a contract Tuesday with the Paducah Coal and Mining company to build for that concern six coal floats or fuel barges in 20 days. Although the order was taken on Tuesday, Captain Barrett received word from his saw mill and boatyard at Leavenworth yesterday afternoon that one of the barges had been set up yesterday, and he anticipates no trouble in getting out all six of them in the limit of 20 days. The barges will be used by the Paducah Coal and Mining company for hauling steamboats at Memphis. They are uniform in size, being 100 feet long, 20 feet beam and 7 feet deep. They will have decks 20 inches from the top. The Paducah company gets its coal from the Tradewater mines, near Caseyville, and, while it already does a large business hauling steamboats, it expects to greatly increase its trade within the next few months.

Mr. Gus Edwards superintendent of the Paducah Coal and Mining company had the Kenton drawn out on the ways today.

The Charleston will be ready to leave for the bend next week.

WORDS OF PRAISE.

For Because She Loved Him So Here Tomorrow Night.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal of Saturday has the following to say of "Because She Loved Him So," which appears at Morton's tomorrow night:

"Before one of the most fashionable audiences of the season 'Because She Loved Him So' was presented at the Lyceum theater last night. The theater was filled very nearly to its capacity. There were only three or four seats unoccupied, and the performance furnished great pleasure to those who were present.

"Because She Loved Him So" is a comedy, pleasing and improbable, and at the same time there is an element of naturalism about it which strikes with increasing force the play which is destined to accept more than the surface view of things.

The play was adapted for the American stage by William Gillette, a dramatist skilled in the craft, and a man who has done much for his profession. He has succeeded in putting together an admirable comedy and as presented at the Lyceum theater last night it was one of the best and most enjoyable events of the present season. The entire company is an excellent one and their performance wholly admirable."

RAM'S HORNS.

Sin served ruins, but sin revealed reforms.

Man is but a seed, and the grave his furrow.

Cooked conduct makes a cross Christian.

Along the path of painful persistence we pass to perfection.

The best translation of the Bible, is its translation into life.

Man may hide from justice, but he cannot hide from himself.

It is the breath of heaven that makes fragrant the life of Christ.

Truth but few walk the way of life; they can never be alone in it.

The way of life is narrow, because there is only one leader, Christ.

The Word of God is valueless except it lead to the God of the Word.

The truth in the Bible is God's revelation, in the Christian, His manifestation.

It is not necessary to hang up a code of home laws in the house where love is dwelling.

All human love is the reflection of the divine in the life of the upward looking man.

If we are going to sit together in heavenly places, we had better begin to stand together in the earthly ones.—Ram's Horn.
